THE NEW GIRL WITH A PAST

Ms Batterhams pays homage to Bendigo's rich & diverse history & our own family connection.

The name, 'Ms Batterhams' honours our mother's former kindergarten & music teacher, Winifred Batterham.

'Winnie', as she was fondly referred to, was a teacher at 'All Saints' (MacKenzie Quarters) in the 1940s.

Winnie was a talented & determined woman who wrote the music for 'The Song of Bendigo' in 1951
& won the Centenary prize for Bendigo in the same year.

We like to imagine that after a long, rewarding day at the piano

Winnie would sit back with good friends - quietly sipping a sherry or two - while sharing her love of music & tales of her time at 'All Saints'.

It is our desire that the creativity, passion, fun & friendships Winnie inspired, continue into the future at Ms Batterhams.

Enjoy

MS BATTERHAMS

A song from an earlier century

SONG OF BENDIGO

(Centennial Song - 1951)

Lyrics by Lucy Hill, Music by Winfred Batterham

We're out for some jollity

Fun and frivolity

Singing a song of a hundred brave years

Of friends that we knew long ago

Men who were everyone clear-eyed & venturesome known to the world by the name pioneers

CHORUS

So sing now of BENDIGO

City of Gold

Sing now of memories worthy to hold

Of brave men and true men of men bold and free

Who conquered new land for you and for me

We're out for some frolicking

Laughing and rollicking

Meeting the friends that we knew long ago

Laughing our way along and with a cheery song greeting the world and the folk that we know.

REPEAT CHORUS

Proud of our heritage

May we then ever gauge

Just the true worth of those first hundred years

That firm in Integrity we may honor be

Staunch to the trust of our brave pioneers.

REPEAT CHORUS
